

PERMIT TO ENGAGE IN FISHERY OPERATIONS WITHIN THE ALASKA PENINSULA FISHERIES RESERVATION

Permit No. 54-1924.

Rev. Dmitry Hotovitsky (for Belkofsky natives).
Belkofsky.

November 3, 1923.

A reservation designated as the Alaska Peninsula Fisheries Reservation having been created by the Executive Order of February 17, 1922, the Rev. Dmitry Hotovitsky, whose post office address is Belkofsky, Alaska, is granted a permit on behalf of the natives of Belkofsky Village to carry on commercial fishery operations within the Ikatan district of the said reservation during the calendar year 1924, under the following conditions:

1. That the said natives of Belkofsky Village may install and operate two traps, one on Dolgoi Island and one in Belkofsky Bay, and may operate two beach seines, one at Long Johns Point and one on Woonnessenski Island.
2. That pursuant to the request of said natives these operations may be conducted in cooperation with the Pacific American Fisheries cannery at King Cove, which will furnish the gear, supervise fishing operations and pay for the fish secured at a rate agreed upon between the company and the natives.
3. That the permittees shall observe the existing laws and regulations for the protection of the fisheries of Alaska and for the administration of the said reservation (copies of which are attached hereto and the conditions of which are made a part of this permit), as well as those that may hereafter be enacted or promulgated for such purposes.
4. That this permit expires December 31, 1924, is not transferable, and is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce.

(Signed) S. B. Davis

Acting Secretary of Commerce.
